

THE TOWNS AROUND.

BARNET.

G. F. Greenbanks has purchased the mill boarding house.
Charles Smith of Glover is visiting his brother, E. J. Smith.
Dr. Hazleton and daughters have returned from Chicago.
The band gives its last concert of the season on Tuesday evening.
L. L. Shackford will visit the Hub this week and get acquainted with the elephant.
The Barnet Jays will play the St. Johnsbury Victors on Brock's meadow, Saturday, the 28th.
Theron Robie of St. Johnsbury is working in Burbank's store during Mr. Burbank's absence in the West.
C. H. Gilliland and wife, George I. Brown and wife, W. H. Burbank and Mrs. James Robb started for the World's Fair Monday.

EAST BARNET.

Nettie M. Lang has gone to Burke to stay a few weeks.
Mrs. J. E. Gilliland from East Burke is visiting friends here.
Rev. Mr. Buzzell from Passumpsic will preach here next Sunday.
A number are going to Boston from here on the excursion this week.

EAST BURKE.

Dr. Lane is improving slowly.
A. C. Farmer has returned from the World's Fair.
Mrs. J. P. Stafford is visiting in St. Johnsbury and vicinity.
Frank Bemis and wife of Worcester, Mass., are visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Harris Smith.
Mrs. Counter and Mrs. Watson have returned from Lowell, Mass., where they went to bury their mother. Their sister, Miss Ellen Smith, returned with them to spend the winter here.

WEST CONCORD.

A. J. Lyon is carrying potatoes here, paying 45 and 40 cents per bushel.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dudley returned home from the World's Fair last Friday.
Several from this place take advantage of the cheap rates and go to Boston this week.

Rev. Mr. Tucker of Lunenburg preached in the M. E. church last Sunday in exchange with Rev. Mr. Currier.
Tinsmith H. B. Dowse has sold to R. S. Brigham his stock of tinware and tools and will now take a much needed rest. Mr. Brigham takes possession at once.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give their annual chicken pie supper and sociable next Saturday evening, Oct. 28. Let everybody turn out and enjoy a good time and give the ladies a financial benefit.

A message was received here last Saturday night from Holliston, Mass., announcing the death that afternoon of Joseph E. Woodbury. Mr. Woodbury lived in this town several years and was for some time engaged in the mercantile business, being the senior member of the firm of Woodbury and Russell. This firm went down with several others in the financial panic that swept the town a few years ago. Shortly after Mr. Woodbury moved to Massachusetts, where he has since resided. He leaves a wife, one son and two daughters.

EAST CONCORD AND VICINITY.

Eugene Carr has moved on to the James Fisher farm for a year.
H. R. Pratt and wife will improve the excursion to Boston this week.
Two of Walter Hartshorn's children are very sick with typhoid fever.

The apple paring at Ira Carpenter's last Wednesday evening was well attended. About ten o'clock the apples were put away and the dulcet strains of violins in the hands of Frank and George Higgins rendered excellent music for the light fantastic toe till early dawn.

CABOT.

Byron Webster and wife took a carriage drive to Boston last week.
The Seventh-Day Advent church at Lower Cabot is to be used for a paint shop.
The Montpelier papers report the granting of a divorce to Mrs. Mattie Mudgett.

A. M. Foster, Hiram Wells and wife and Mrs. Dr. Warren have returned from Chicago.

Mrs. W. E. Barney of Barre, who has been quite ill with la grippe at E. P. Elmer's, is much better and expects soon to be able to return to her home.

A union service will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday evening. Rev. H. A. Spencer of Montpelier, a former presiding elder, will preach upon education.

Otis Rollins had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse last week. A broken leg, caused by a kick received in the pasture, necessitated its being killed.

Mrs. J. O. Sherburn is attending the annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society in Toledo, Ohio, as a delegate from the Vermont conference W. H. M. S.

DANVILLE.

Dr. Ernest Palmer from Brooklyn is in town.
Dr. Weaver has gone to Boston for a few days.

Mrs. Peter Wesson has gone to the World's Fair.

Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Carter spent Sunday in Hardwick.

Frank Ladd and wife from Cabot spent Sunday in town.

J. E. Tinker and wife have returned from the World's Fair.

Geo. Garvin from Lancaster, N. H., was in town Monday.

Mrs. F. J. Preston and Ira have gone to Boston on the excursion.

A. C. Gillis from Keene, N. H., is visiting his relatives in town.

William Palmer from Boston is in town visiting his father, John Palmer.

J. W. Gillis and Geo. Kingsbury are attending the S. S. convention at Rutland.

Mrs. Eleazer Dole is very sick; her son Henry T. Dole from St. Paul, Minn., is in town.

Frank Haviland, who was injured by a horse last week, is very low and is not expected to recover.

Geo. Smart will be at Atwell's Hotel at Peacham, Thursday, Nov. 2, and every Thursday after that, prepared to do all kinds of barber work, including ladies' hair dressing.

WEST DANVILLE.

Mrs. James Wilcox starts for New York Saturday.

The road in front of Jason Cole's is completed and there are various opinions of the benefits therefrom; one thing is sure, we avoid two grade crossings.

George Merrill & Son put in the glass front of Brown & Wheeler's store last week, and the work inside is progressing rapidly towards completion.

Carl Ferran quit work in the stone shop this week and Emory Clifford returned to work again. There have been quite a number of changes in the sheds lately.

The railroad is setting posts along the west side of the track and half-way up the pond where the road cuts across the pond, and to the bridge, to make fence, to prevent the snow drifting over the track.

NORTH DANVILLE.

Miss Myrtle Kelsey has gone to Waterford.

Lincoln Langmaid has had excellent success trapping, having caught 10 foxes and three coons within a short time.

Mr. Elliot of Manchester, N. H., better known as Lucena Blake, formerly of this place, called on friends here last week.

H. E. Kelsey, J. Brown, Porter Fellows, take advantage of the low rate excursion to Boston, going Wednesday.

The next session of the Wheelock quarterly meeting convenes here this week, beginning Thursday and holding over the Sabbath.

We understand that the real estate and personal property belonging to the estate of the late James G. Horne will be sold at auction, Wednesday, Nov. 1.

Rev. F. A. Palmer was at Falmouth, Maine, over Sunday, and the pulpit was supplied by Mr. Potter of St. Johnsbury, and in the evening Rev. A. I. Davis of St. Johnsbury delivered a very able sermon.

The beautiful weather of last Saturday evening was in favor of the band concert at Danville; a large crowd was out and enjoyed a good time. The boys go to St. Johnsbury Centre this week Saturday evening. The boys furnish lots of music in an evening and are deserving of a full house at the promenade at the Centre.

GREENSBORO.

Mrs. W. Richmond of Newport has been visiting friends in town.

Rev. Mr. Harlow of Coventry recently exchanged with Rev. Mr. Guild.

A. E. Perrin has sold the brick house, which he owned in the village, to Geo. A. Porter.

Clark Baker has been entertaining brothers and sisters whom he had not seen for many years.

The ladies' aid society are to give an entertainment on Friday evening, Oct. 27, at the Congregational church, consisting of Scotch dialect readings by Rev. R. B. Moody of Craftsbury, interspersed by Scotch songs by our best local talent. The readings will be from the best Scotch writers and will range from the humorous to the pathetic. Admission 15 cents. Children free.

GLOVER.

Several deer have been seen in town lately.

Joseph King has sold his farm to parties in Charleston.

B. W. Colby from Sherbrooke, C. E., is visiting friends in town.

Several of the townspeople will avail themselves of the cheap rates and visit Boston this week.

John Mathie has rented W. N. Aldrich's farm and will take possession at once.

Mrs. W. H. Phillips is quite sick—Mrs. S. E. King is improving—One of Geo. Alger's children are very sick.

GREENSBORO BEND.

Last week Greensboro Bend was the scene of a fair for the benefit of the Catholic chapel. The attendance was large and the amount realized was $90.

The reverend missionary returns his thanks to all benefactors. Protestant as well as Catholic. Several articles were disposed of. Other will be, in a month or two, at Greensboro Bend, the lists of which will remain open till that time.

The grand division of the Sons of Temperance in Vermont held its annual meeting here last week. Eighty-two members were registered and 15 new members were initiated. These officers were elected: C. W. P., C. T. S. Pierce of Vergennes; C. W. A., Mrs. A. G. Alston of East Hardwick; G. S., C. C. Pecu of Vergennes; G. T., A. G. Perrin of Greensboro Bend; G. Con., Mrs. E. C. Densmore of Barre; G. Sen., A. D. Perrin of Greensboro Bend; P. G. W. P., G. L. Kibby of Bellows Falls; superintendent young people's work, Mary E. Whiteside of Vergennes. The next annual session will be held in Bellows Falls.

HARDWICK.

Rev. M. C. Henderson of St. Johnsbury will preach at the town hall next Sunday at 10.45 a. m.

EAST HARDWICK.

V. L. Dow has been appointed postmaster here.

Rev. Mr. Baker and wife returned from Chicago last Thursday.

M. S. Stone, state school superintendent, is here visiting his parents.

Dr. Fuller, dentist from Craftsbury, will be in town again October 28th.

Mrs. Davis has returned from Danville, where she has been staying with her sister, who fell and badly sprained her knee and ankle.

Mrs. Giffin and her sister, Mrs. Dr. Newton, and baby Ruth Newton, are visiting their father, Mr. Keith. Mrs. Keith is expected home this week.

All those who went from here to the World's Fair about two weeks ago have returned in safety, and are unanimous in saying it is well worth going to see.

Rev. Mr. Byington and wife returned from their vacation on Monday. The congregation of his church were edified by the preaching of Rev. Donald of Johnson last Sabbath.

Twelve from this place availed themselves of the reduced rate of fare to Boston, and left for that city Tuesday morning. Among the number were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Dow, Mr. and Mrs. Williams and Mr. Livingston.

There has been a Columbian meeting appointed to be held in the Baptist church Wednesday evening, after prayer meeting, to which all visitors to the World's Fair are invited, and requested to bring any souvenirs they may have from the great Exposition. If it is a rainy night the meeting will be postponed till the next Wednesday evening. Every one else, as well as those who have attended the Fair, will be welcomed.

LYNDON.

Several of our people are taking advantage of the excursion this week to visit the Hub.

Capt. and Mrs. J. S. Thompson started Tuesday morning on a trip northward to visit their daughter, Mrs. Chaffee, at Westfield.

It is expected that the young people of the Congregational society will be ready to bring out the cantata, "The Dairy-maid's Supper," Friday evening, November 3.

Last Thursday a party of six, consisting of Mr. Lincoln, Mrs. Trull, Mrs. Fisher, Miss Mary Lincoln, Miss Alice Hall and Miss Carrie Eaton, climbed Burke Mountain and got a fine view of this part of the world.

The sociable at J. C. Eaton's last Friday evening was as usual a success. The evening was delightful, the attendance large, the musical programme excellent, the cake and coffee delicious, and everybody seemed to know that a good time was inevitable.

Rev. Mr. Fisk and daughter, Miss Grace, attended the state Christian Endeavor convention at Barre last week. Driving over on Monday they found the weather chilly and uncomfortable with a shower of hail at one time. They report that the meetings were well attended and very interesting.

The weather during October has been something wonderful. We have had a succession of bright warm days with only an occasional touch of cool weather. Tuesday evening, Oct. 24, at 9 o'clock, the thermometer registered 62 degrees above zero, and many of our evenings have been about the same.

B. J. Kittredge, who has for several years lived in the Bundy house at the west end of the village, died Thursday, Oct. 17, aged 72 years. He had been in poor health for some years, but was ill at last less than a week. Funeral services were held at his late residence Thursday afternoon by Rev. Mr. Dodd who, according to request, preached from Job xix: 14, "If a man die shall he live again?" Singing by a quartette composed of Mr. Winter, Mr. Lyster, Mrs. Everett and Miss Thompson.

LYNDONVILLE.

L. B. Harris started for the World's Fair yesterday.

Fifty-three Boston excursion tickets were sold here for Wednesday morning's mail train.

A large company of the Relief Corps of West Burke visited the corps here last Friday evening.

S. E. Dunton has moved from the village to his farm. He still retains his position at the railroad shops.

The Good Templars will meet with Burke Mt. Lodge, at East Burke, next Friday evening, for the purpose of drill initiation.

LYNDON CENTER.

The oyster supper last week was a great success. The society cleared about twenty-two dollars.

Tuesday evening about thirty of the young people gathered at Albert Batchelder's to celebrate his nineteenth birthday.

Among those who go on the excursion to Boston are Mrs. Nason and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard and daughter and Mrs. H. Ingerson.

Lyndon Institute base ball nine went to Barton Landing last week to play with a picked nine from Orleans county. The Institutes were beaten by a score of 17 to 4. The Barton Landing team will play here next Saturday.

LUNENBURG.

Mrs. Buckminster is still very sick.

Alden Vance is opening up a fine stock of goods in his new store.

Melvin Bean of Bethlehem is at work on the Congregational church.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warren have been visiting friends in Ryegate the past week.

Mrs. Johnson, only sister of Alden Balch, died at her home in the south part of the town last Tuesday.

Sherman Balch is painting his house and the Hollow people are generally "slicking up" with new paint, etc.

Several Masons from this place went to West Concord last Friday evening to attend a banquet given by the lodge at that place; there is some talk of forming a lodge in this place.

The Lancaster base ball team came over here last Saturday and defeated our home team. Not being satisfied to return victors, they stole a ball and bat, much to the indignation of players and spectators.

There were two base ball games in this town last week; the first one on Friday between the East Concord and the Lunenburg nines resulted in a victory for the West Concord nine; the game on Saturday between the Lancaster and Lunenburg nines resulted in a victory for the Lancasters.

McINDOES FALLS.

C. H. Houghton of Waltham, Mass., was at home last week.

Miss Ella Buzzell of Passumpsic visited Mrs. Frank Ford last week.

The Misses Tappin of Fitchburg, Mass., have been visiting their cousin, Miss Mabel Cassidy.

Mrs. L. D. Hazen and Mrs. Mead of St. Johnsbury were the guests of Mrs. Wm. Kimball on Saturday.

Mrs. Ellen Gilchrist and mother went to Boston and Worcester, Mass., on Wednesday to visit relatives.

There will be a sociable at Mrs. I. M. Smith's on Friday evening. The proceeds for the repairing done on the Academy schoolroom.

James Stuart is at home from Boston for a few days; he will return the last of the week, taking his wife and daughter with him to stay a short time.

W. M. Morgan and family who have been spending the summer with Mrs. Morgan's mother, Mrs. Houghton, returned to their home at Manchester last Friday.

The Y. P. S. C. E. have an entertainment at the academy hall next week Tuesday. An entertaining programme has been arranged and we hope the young people will be well patronized. It being Halloween, those present will have a chance to find out some of the mysteries which the future holds.

NEWBURY.

Rev. Lang of Whitefield, N. H., preached in this place last Sabbath.

Our village is unusually quiet this week, occasioned by several of our people going to Boston on the excursion.

Mrs. Wallace Brock, who is suffering intense pain from trouble with her head and eyes, has the sympathy of her many friends.

Mr. Osgood and family from Bethel are at the Sawyer house for the winter. Mr. Osgood is selling a large number of stoves in our vicinity.

Roland Swasey and Mary Hale were each presented with a solid silver badge, at the last meeting of the J. C. E. society, for being present at every meeting since last spring.

PASSUMPSIC.

Miss Nettie Lewis goes to Granby this week for a short visit.

Mrs. A. P. Hawley is visiting in Lunenburg and West Concord.

Mrs. Emma K. Hall started for the World's Fair on Monday.

John McGill is making considerable repairs to his house and barn.

F. W. Mason, Elmer Symes and Perry Moore are taking in the cheap excursion to Boston this week.

The "Farther Lights" gave a pound party at Mrs. Jennie Vitty's last Friday night, which was a success financially and otherwise.

Mrs. Frank Rash has bought the Cushman house and will rent the same.—Tom Fountain, who works for the Passumpsic Pulp Company, undertook to show the natives what he knew about river driving one day last week, with the result that he took several involuntary baths from off the top of the logs which he was endeavoring to pilot across the river. Tom thinks he will postpone further efforts until the water gets somewhat warmer.

PEACHAM AND EAST PEACHAM.

In the Battle Creek Railroad Accident.

Moses and Will Martin and C. A. Hutchinson and wife and Mrs. C. E. Sargent and family were on the ill-fated train that collided with the East bound train at Battle Creek last Friday morning, but a telegram from them announces that none of them were seriously hurt.

Charles Way is putting a dormer window into his house.

Edwin R. Mackay is building a piazza across the front of his house.

Dan Morgan has brought the blacksmith shop at South Peacham.

Miss Cora Sargent has gone West to spend the winter for her health.

Simon Clark has purchased the Chas. Varnum farm in East Peacham.

Mrs. Mary Brock of St. Johnsbury is visiting friends in town this week.

W. Miles has moved to Groton, which leaves us without any tinsmith in town.

Mrs. C. O. Clifford and Miss Lilla Dresser are visiting at St. Johnsbury this week.

Mrs. Dr. Parker had a slight shock last week, but hopes are entertained that she will recover.

W. W. Palmer of Boston, to whom so many of the farmers send butter, is visiting his brother, F. E. Palmer.

Herman Blanchard, son of Daniel Blanchard of Barton, formerly of Peacham, is visiting friends in town.

The post office at the Corner has not been moved yet, although the report is that Miss Steele has her commission.

Dr. W. A. Thomas left this week for New York to attend a course of medical lectures, to be absent about six weeks.

Mrs. J. K. Williams and Jessie Clark were chosen delegates to attend the State Sunday School Convention at Rutland this week.

Rev. Mr. Wathan of Lisbon, N. H., preached last Sabbath at the Congregational church in exchange with Mr. Williams.

George Smart of Danville will be at Mr. Atwell's, Peacham, November 2d, Thursday, through the day and evening, prepared to do barbering.

Lorin Judkins has bought the Jack place and shop in Barre, and will soon move there. He offers his place at South Peacham for sale or to rent.

Quite a large party assembled at Smith Livingston's the other night for an old fashioned husking, after which music was furnished by Judkins and Hopkins.

Quite a number of our people are improving the looks of their dwellings by paint. Elijah Whiting and Charles Thresher are painting their houses.

George Stoddard doing the work, and Dea. Marten and Robert Esdon are painting their large barns.

A quiet home wedding took place at Harry Dunn's on the 10th, at which time their daughter Mattie was married to Harry Farrow. The happy couple left on the mail train for Chicago to visit the Fair, and then go to Minneapolis and Dakota and other points in the West, to be absent about two months.

B. F. Ainsworth moves this week to his new farm, the Wm. McLachlin place, having sold his house and meat business at South Peacham to Ellie Wheeler of East Peacham. Dick Palmer has purchased Wheeler's house in East Peacham, and Ira Russell, who occupied the McLachlin place, has moved into the Methodist parsonage.

NORTH PEACHAM.

Annie Allen has been appointed postmistress here.

The post office is moved from Scott M. Farnum's to Fred Allen's.

C. F. Thresher attended the convention of the state S. S. association at Rutland this week.

Elsie W. Thresher closed her term of school at Harvey's Hollow, Danville, last week. There were eleven out of twenty-four scholars who had no marks in the register.

RYEGATE.

A Meeting in the Fair Interest.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of Caledonia Park corporation will be held at the town hall Thursday evening, November 2, at 7 o'clock. Adjournment of the same place, immediately after the above meeting, there will be held the eighth annual meeting of the Ryegate Wells River Valley Dairy-men's Association for the election of new officers, and the transaction of other business. It is expected that there will be an itemized statement of all the receipts and expenditures of the association during the past year given at the meeting, and as there is a sufficient sum in the treasury to make more extensive improvements on the fair ground than has hitherto been done, it is hoped there will be a full discussion as to how it shall be expended. This and the advisability of having the state board of agriculture hold an institute in town the coming winter makes it imperative that there should be a full attendance. Let all come, you will be heartily welcome.

S. T. Nelson has nearly completed the repairs on his house.

Mrs. Beattie is visiting her son, the doctor, at Littleton, N. H.

The World's Fair visitors are expected home, many of them, this week.

W. H. Gray of Burlington, Kansas, is visiting his parents, after an absence of nine years.

A goodly number here will avail themselves of the opportunity to visit Boston on the low fare this week.

Wallace Harris, son of Rev. D. Harris, a theological student, preaches at this place one evening this week in the U. P. church.

Mrs. G. M. Willey of West Hebron, N. Y., arrived in town Monday evening. Her husband, the reverend, is expected this week Thursday.

While Ned Symes, was enjoying a drive with a young lady, some part of the harness gave away while descending a steep hill, and they were thrown from the carriage. The horse ran away, making a ruin of the wagon and leaving Mr. Symes in the gutter. He is coming out all right.

WALDEN.

Hard colds are prevalent in town.

G. C. Stevens has returned from a ten days visit to the World's Fair.

An exhibition at the school-house at South Walden, Thursday evening of this week. What is it?

J. M. Patch and wife intend going soon to Fall River, Mass., where they expect to make their future home.

S. W. Cameron has purchased Robert Jenison's farm on the county road and intends moving on to it this week.

Quarterly conference will meet at the South church, Saturday. The presiding elder, J. Hamilton, is expected to be present.

WHEELLOCK.

Remember the large auction sale of the personal property belonging to the estate of the late James G. Horne, at South Wheelock, Nov. 1.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.